Seguin Township hires new Fire Chief

(Seguin, ON – June 5, 2013) – Don Hood, Rosseau District Volunteer Fire Chief for the past 5 years, has accepted the position of Seguin Fire Chief leading the Fire Services Department effective July 2, 2013.

“I am both excited and humbled by the opportunity to lead this wonderful group of volunteers and staff that make up Seguin Fire Services,” says Chief Hood. “This is a key time in our organization, with many exciting activities in the municipality, as we build a new Fire Station in Foley to ramping up our recruitment of volunteer fire fighters. I look forward to ensuring our fire services remain at the highest level and am keen on building on the well established relationships with the Township and external organizations. “

Chief Hood’s experience as a volunteer fire fighter has extended over the past 30 years which included the Deputy Fire Chief for the McDougall Fire Department.

“Don has been a valuable member of our Fire Services team and I am happy to see someone with his knowledge and experience get promoted to the Chief’s job,” said Tom Stockie, CAO of Seguin Township. “He is certainly familiar with our municipality and operations given his background. I have the utmost confidence in him leading our Fire Services Department and welcome him in his new capacity.”

“The safety and security of our residents is our top priority,” said Mayor David Conn. “Chief Hood’s appointment will ensure that we continue to deliver exceptional emergency services today and continue to build a strong team of volunteer fire fighters in the future.”
