

Little Otter Lake Loon Family – August 15th 2017

What a catch!

These photos were all taken by Marilyn Campbell today of the Loon family on Little Otter Lake. Marilyn thinks the fish may be a pike. Quite the mouthful!

These chicks on Little Otter are almost grown. They will migrate to the ocean at freeze up in their grey feathers. They will return to our lake in 4 years or so, in their colourful adult plumage.